STATE ODDS AND ENDS

THE RAILWAY HEARING.

The State Railway Commission Con-tinued Until October 12.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 4.—The state railroad commission continued to Thursday, October 12, next, hearing of the general complaint of discrimination in freight rates, filed against all railroad companies operating in Kentucky. The commission will refuse to allow the Owensboro shippers who originated the charges to withdraw them, as they asked to do Tuesday, Gov. Bickham Tuesday afternoon retained former United States Senator William Lindsay, of New York, to represent the commonwealth in the investigation, and he and Attorney Bennett H. Young asked that the state be made a party complainant. After hearing preliminary motions here the commission may adjourn to Louisville to hear testimony.

KILLED BY A BELT.

Every Bone in a Boy's Body Was Crushed.

Newport, Ky., Oct. 3.—Caught by a swiftly moving belt and hurled against the ceiling in the Higgins Manufacturing Co.'s plant, at Fifth and Washington streets, Elder, Greenglass, 16, was held as with a vice while all the power of machinery crushed against him until every bone in his body was broken. To add to the horrifying nature of the accident, the victim remained fastened in the death trap, following workers gazing helplessly at him, until a physician arrived and cut loose the belt. The man in the place had apparently lost presence of mind temporarily. Greasing did not live long enough to tell, if he knew, how he got caught and was whirled to death.

REGISTRATION POLLS.

Numerous Clashes Took Place in Louisville, Ky.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 4.—Numerous clashes have occurred at the registration polls as a result of men with cameras being stationed by fusion ticket supporters to photograph repeaters.

At Eighth and Main three men drew revolver on the man with the camera, smashed his instrument and forced him to flee for his life. At Ninth and Jefferson streets Clarence Spencer was knocked down, hit in the stomach, and his camera smashed. Service trouble is feared as the result of the strong feeling which is developing over the local campaign, which is becoming very heated.

BY AN AUTOMOBILE.

Valuable Colt Owned By J. B. Haggard Was Killed.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 2.—A valuable colt by Thoroughbred Queenie, owned by J. B. Haggard, being led in front of Haggard for the sales, was killed by an automobile. Authorities are endeavoring to ascertain the name of the automobile who was travelling at great speed and who did not check his rear running down the horse. The groom was knocked down but not seriously hurt.

Stoned the Girl.

Vanceburg, Ky., Oct. 2.—In a pitched battle with revolvers and stones Miss Viola Sartin, of Clarksburg, near here, was struck on the head with a large stone thrown. It is said, by Mart Sevier, and is believed to be beyond recovery. Selsmer has just been acquitted of the charge of grand larceny.

Want the Speed College.

Letchfield, Ky., Oct. 2.—Central City is anxious to obtain the speed college, and offers 50 acres of land as a site, and proposes to contribute $35,000, two-thirds of which is already pledged. In addition to this, Central City proposes to furnish lights, water and coal free for five years.

Louisville Horse Show.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 3.—With cash prizes totalling $30,000, making it in this respect second only to the New York horse show, and with many famous exhibitors bringing the cream of fancy bred equines, the Louisville horse show opened.

Found Mangled Body.

Covington, Ky., Oct. 2.—Trainmen on the L. & N. C. division, found the mangled body of a white man near the north entrance of the tunnel at Grant's Bend. The fragments of the body were placed in a box. Supposed to be Willie Riggs, of Paris, Ky.

New Church at Barboursville.

Barboursville, Ky., Sept. 30.—The contract has been let for the construction of the new building for the First Methodist church and work will begin immediately. The building will cost about $8,000 when completed.

Daugherty Elected.

Owingsville, Ky., Oct. 4.—At the regular meeting of the Bath fiscal court here the office of county turnpike commissioner was created and County Judge John A. Daugherty was elected to the position at a salary of $1,000 per year.

Purchased Coal Lands.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Oct. 3.—Cleveland, O., capitalists are reported to have purchased 10,000 acres of coal and timber land in Whitley county at a fancy figure. They will open several coal mines and start coke ovens.

There has been a popular demand for, and as a result of that demand, an independent ticket has been selected and candidates agreed upon for four of the county offices. The SIGNAL abiding its own time has had but little to say, desiring to await developments.

As a result of our failing to speak some have said that we are a Republican and at least for the ticket named at the primary election. Others have said—no, that we are a Democrat, while others are willing to wager a rotten apple that we are neither because we have had nothing to say.

From our viewpoint it is the highest duty of both Republicans and Democrats to look first and foremost to the county's best interests, putting that above all things else. The officers of Rockcastle can pass no Democratic or Republican legislation. All they can do is to execute the laws and conduct the fiscal affairs of the county. Hence the people should always try to find and elect those men who will execute the laws and give us a thorough, businesslike administration regardless of their politics or their religion.

But whether we be called a Democrat or Republican, this paper stands for the best interests of the county and the people it represents. We believe that an office is a public trust and that an officer is an agent and servant of his creators—the people; that whether he be a Democrat or Republican, if he be elected to office and does not deport himself as an officer should and does not fully carry out his duties as such, he should be deposed by the people and another placed in his stead who will. Whatever we may say in this campaign will be prompted by an honest desire to see our county improve; that prosperity may abound; that the laborer may get the very highest wages possible for his work done and that the farmer may receive the greatest price for his products; that our laws may be executed honestly, impartially and fearlessly; that some internal improvement may be made each year and that the people will have something to show for their taxes paid into our treasury annually. In order to do this, the citizens in this county should lay aside party passion and prejudice and vote for men who will act with a singleness of purpose and who will strive to build up the county morally, intellectually and commercially.

The great majority of our people know the candidates on both sides. You know their respective claims upon your votes and whether or not they are entitled to your suffrage. If you are not thoroughly posted as to the reasons why you should vote for some and oppose others, inquire of those who are sufficiently advised. Speak honestly, passionately and earnestly, irrespective of party, the best men to vote for and then may God give us grace, courage and strength to go to the election booth in November next and do our full duty for our home and native land.

With this issue the SIGNAL begins its Nineteenth year. For nearly six years of that time the present management has been in charge. We know full well what the past has been and we sincerely trust that the future will be no worse.

NEWS ITEMS

The jury was completed Saturday and the hearing of evidence began at Russellville in the case of W. R. Fletcher, accused of criminally assaulting Mary Glader. Troops are closely guarding the jail.

The Chesapeake and Nashville railroad, which was sold Saturday to W. H. Northcutt, of Louisville, was bought for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, the formal transfer papers having been filed in the county clerk's office at Scottsville, Ky.

Frederick Carlton, the bigamist, was attacked by a mob upon leaving the court room in New York, where he was sentenced to an aggregate term of nineteen years in prison. Judge Aspenwall said he regretted he could not send Carlton to the electric chair.

The yellow fever situation is regarded as exceedingly hopeful on account of September's fine record, heretofore a bad month, and the further fact that the disease has failed to malignant.

Judge Benton in the Clark Circuit Court, refused to grant a new trial to B. F. French, who was fined $5,000 for alleged enticing away of witnesses in the damage suit of Mrs James B. Marcus for the murder of her husband.

Great gratification is expressed in New Orleans that President Roosevelt has decided to visit that city, and active preparations for his reception will be begun at once. Reports from all over the fever zone are very encouraging.

In order to avoid any complications over the quarantine regulations President Roosevelt has decided to make New Orleans the final stop on his Southern trip and to return to Washington on board a cruiser. He will leave Washington on Oct. 18, and will visit St. Augustine, Mobile, Tuskegee, Birmingham, Little Rock and New Orleans in the order named.

The Chesapeake and Nashville railroad, extending from Scottsville, Ky., to Gallatin, Tenn., and connecting with the Louisville & Nashville railroad, has been sold by William A. Webb of New York, for $300,000 to William A. Northcutt, of the law department of the Louisville & Nashville railroad. Mr. Northcutt declined to say whether he bought the road for the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

The Harrison County Democratic Committee has demanded of E. K. Renaker that he withdraw as the candidate for State Senator from the district comprising Nicholas, Robertson and Harrison counties, on account of the Whitaker slander suit verdict. Renaker has issued a card asserting that he will not withdraw.

Get SCOTT'S Emulsion

When you go to a drug store and ask for Scott's Emulsion you know what you want; the man knows you ought to have it. Don't be surprised, though, if you are offered something else. Wines, cordials, extracts, etc., of cod liver oil are plentiful but don't imagine you are getting cod liver oil when you take them. Every year for thirty years we've been increasing the sales of Scott's Emulsion. Why? Because it has always been better than any substitute for it.

EXCLUSION LAWS.

The Subject Was Up For Consideration at a Meeting of the Cabinet.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

Pleaded Guilty To Malfeasance and Oppression in Office.

Kansas City, Oct. 4.—A. J. Liddell justice of the peace at Independence, Mo., a Confederate veteran and one of the lieutenants of Quantrell, the guerrilla, pleaded guilty in the criminal court here to a trivial charge of malfeasance and oppression in office. He was given a light fine, which was paid promptly. This conviction, under the laws of Missouri, acts not only as an ouster from office, but forever deprives Liddell from holding office in this state.

Death of Gen. William Sinclair. Washington, Oct. 4.—Brig. Gen. William Sinclair, U. S. A., retired, died here of Bright's disease. He had a brilliant military career, serving in many of the notable engagements of the civil war. He was born in China 70 years ago.

NOT WHAT HE WANTED.

Michigan Agriculturist in Doubt Concerning Department Literature Sent Him.

There is a farmer in Michigan whose views as to the value of the agricultural department as a national institution have been sadly changed. A letter received at the department a few days ago contained a plaintive wail from the disillusioned soil tiller, reports the Star.

"The Honorable Secretary of Agriculture," he begins, "Esteemed Sir: I take my pen in hand to write you about the agricultural department. I don't suppose you want to hear from me, but I want you to read this communication. As I help to pay your salary you ought to do it. I will be as short as I can.

"I have been a farmer all my life, and there ain't any mortgage over my head. I ain't generally regarded as a kicker, I don't think the world owes me a living. And I sure am a hog for work. Neither do I think I know it all and some time ago when I heard you had experts find out about everything and send advice to farmers I thought it was fine. I asked my congressman what I should do to get some of this free advice and he told me to write to the publication division of the agricultural department, mentioning his name. I did so, saying I was a farmer that didn't know it all and that was after some bulletins to help me in my farming."

"Along about a week later," continues the writer, "a package came for me and I was real tickled, and after me and Mirandy had finished supper and the dishes was wiped I sets down and opens the package, intending to absorb some of that free information right there on the spot, having concluded that I'd been faring along in the old ignorant way. But I'll be bounswaddid if I wasn't surprised when I picked up the first bulletin to see that it was called a preliminary study of the germination of the spores of agarics campestris and other basidiomycetes fungi. Mr. Secretary, I'm plumb ignorant, but I never tackled a crop like that, and I ain't going to. I looked through the book, but couldn't make head or tail of it, so I just laid it aside, and picked up another. That there first one, I says to myself, slipped in by mistake."

"When I opened that second bulletin I'll be dogged if it wasn't more outlandish than the first. It was about the formation of the spores in the sporangia of rhizopogon giganteus and of phycomyces nitens. Without going too much into my feelings when I read that thing I'll continue. The third bulletin I picked up was about the physiological role of mineral nutrients in plants, which didn't mean a whole lot to me; the fourth told how to cultivate the Central American rubber tree, and the fifth was about rubber-tree and other diseases of citrus trees and fruits caused by coelotrichum gloeosporioides. You can believe me, Mr. Secretary, when I tell you that I ain't going to plant any rubber trees out here."

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—The body of Peter H. Thompson, the wealthy New Yorker, who has been missing from the private sanatorium of Dr. L. P. Roberts, at Llanarac, was found in a clump of bushes in a strip of woods and just back of Hawerford, Pa., near here. In his right temple was a bullet hole and beside him was a revolver with one chamber empty.

The body was in an advanced state of decomposition.

In the pockets of the dead man were found $10.44 and a gold watch and chain. The missing man was formerly vice president of the Peter Adams Paper Co., a New York concern, and he of all the people of Mt. Vernon to have a town government, I now propose that the people meet in mass convention at the court house on Monday, Oct. 9th at 7 o'clock to advise together and nominate a ticket of five trustees, police judge and marshal to be voted for at the regular November election. Every one interested in the welfare of our town will come and take part in the convention.

J. T. ADAMS,
Police Judge.

The dormitory is nearing completion, and is indeed quite an addition to the town to say nothing of what it means to the school. It is just a little over a week until the school will open and every indication points to a most successful year's work. Through Miss Taylor, the Principal, in her untiring efforts in behalf of the school, her donations have been made, a splendid faculty has been secured and many conveniences and advantages will be offered the students, which in the past have been denied for the want of sufficient means. We look forward to a bright future for the Brown Memorial School.

A local newspaper reflects the business interests of a town in its advertising columns. A business man looking for a location always examines the newspaper to see how his particular line is represented.

If he is a grocer and finds none advertising, he concludes that there are no grocers, or, if there are, they are all dead. If he is a doctor or a lawyer he looks over the professional cards to see if his profession is represented. Among the subscriber's home paper has a similar mission. The prospective buyers like an invitation to come and trade with the merchants.

A card of professional men is just as essential as the sign in front of their door. A hardware man need not heat his store to keep things from freezing. He might have a booth out on the street or at skating pond and do a lot of business instead of paying rent at his store and buying fuel to heat it with, but it might not be economy to do so.

Just so with advertising. It is not a luxury, but rather an economical proposition recognized by the best and most successful business men the world over.—Port Chester, (N.Y.) Journal.

State Development Convention.

A NOTABLE MEETING OF BUSINESS MEN OF KENTUCKY.

Governor Beckham and Senator McCreary, Chairmen. Senator Blackburn, Toastmaster.

The Fourth Annual State Development Convention, at Louisville, Oct. 10, 11 and 12, under auspices of the Louisville Commercial Club, is promising of far-reaching results to the good old Commonwealth.

In every county and city in the State the most active business men in their respective communities have been appointed delegates and urged to attend.

The Convention will continue three days, holding six business sessions. Gov. Beckham will preside over these sessions the first day, Senator Blackburn, the second and Senator McCreary the third. A banquet will close the occasion over which Senator Blackburn will preside as toastmaster.

One special feature of the sessions will be a roll call of counties during which some delegate will answer the following questions:

What inducements are offered by county or city to capital seeking investment?

What industries—manufacturing or other—do you most need?

What are its products, what are its resources?

What does it need in the way of development to make it a richer—more productive—county?

The information compiled in this way will be given wide publicity through the industrial journals of the United States to attract capital seeking investment in Kentucky.

Following are the delegates appointed for Rockcastle County:

W. J. Sparks, Mt. Vernon; J. Thos. Cherry, Brodhead; Henry Brannaman, Wildie; W. H. Jones, Wildie; James Maret, Mt. Vernon; A. G. Lovell, Mt. Vernon; E. S. Albright, Mt. Vernon; Jacob Sambrook, Livingstone; Judge S. P. Lewis, Mt. Vernon.

The railroads have granted rate of one fare plus 25 cents for round trip from any point in Kentucky.

LEVEL GREEN

Our farmers are all done foddling and most of the wheat ground is broke ready for sowing, but the game of sowing has been completely blocked by the failure of the arrival of Joseph Smith's fertilizer. More trade, traffic, buying and selling are being done by our citizens than heretofore during the year. The corn this year is going to be very fine in this vicinity. Jarvis J. Brown contemplates putting in a cane mill, with evaporator attached and if he does, our boys and girls will get sweet from the "farmers' syrup."

Mr. Vanhook, of whom we wrote last week sold his farm for the sum of $1600.—Sam Sowder, Jr. of Berea, is visiting relatives and friends here. Mitchell Norton, and wife of Plato, visited J. N. Brown Wednesday and helped to make the time pass more pleasantly for a man who has been confined to his bed for more than a year.—Wade Brown, who is at the hospital at Stanford, reports that he is improving very fast.—Coleman Broughton and Bill Brown are the boss wood choppers of this community, having sawed, cut, pit and put up one fourth (1/4) cord in a day.—Jonas Pitman purchased a combined saddle and harness horse for the sum of $150 from James Broyles.—H. C. Broughton reports a lively trade now, not having been troubled by any drummers this week.—Mullins & La them will start this week with a large drove of hogs and cattle for the Stanford pens.—Wm. H. Brown, who has been troubled with severe headache, partook of H. C. Broughton's "A Balm for every pain", and reports an immediate and agreeable cure.—Toney Hatcher, a brakeman, of Corbin, has been visiting his parents near Level Green.—We learn that Mrs. Nicey Overbay, formerly Miss Nicey DeBoard, of this place, is very low at her home on Negro Creek.—In addition to those already mentioned, Dr. Price, Mrs. Forbes, of Wildie, Mrs. Amanda DeBoard and Leona Catron visited J. N. Brown.—Here a few for the boys in grammar. And he, even he, went to town. Parse even. His name John. Parse John. He calls John. Parse John. He was called ED JOHN. Pats was called, and John. This is the that I told you to parse and not that that gentlemen said to parse.

This is referred, most respectfully, to Mr. Sim Davis.—Buck Varner is feeling much better this (Thursday) morning.
